

MARK AND MARY ANDREWS SCHOLARSHIP

Mark and Mary Andrews, desiring to invest in the ongoing growth and development of the University of North Dakota, and to assist North Dakota students in receiving a quality education at UND have established this scholarship. By establishing this scholarship, Mark and Mary also wish to show their appreciation for the quality education their daughters Karen and Sarah received at the University of North Dakota.

It is their wish that the scholarship awards go to students who have a strong work ethic, a positive attitude and a strength of character which will, when combined with a good quality education, be a strong indicator of career success and meaningful and productive lives.

Criteria: Strong work ethic, positive attitude and strength of character.

SHIRLEY A. BAKKEN SCHOLARSHIP

This award is given annually to a law student who has lived and worked from childhood until the age of eighteen on a family farm in North Dakota. The award is made available by a gift from A.C. Bakken, Surrogate Judge, North Dakota Supreme Court, and former Presiding Judge, Northeast Central Judicial District, in memory of his wife, Shirley A. Bakken.

The purpose of the eligibility requirement for the scholarship is to reflect A.C. Bakken's family farm origin and the appreciation he has for it and for the UND Law School, and foremost the love and appreciation which he has for his deceased wife, Shirley, for her devoted assistance and encouragement to him as a law student, lawyer and district court judge.

Criteria: Raised on a family farm.

DAVID S. BIRKELAND MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP
